How to make them so. Keep them in Health and They will take care of the Rest.
The joy of every well-regulated household comes chiefly from the children. Thousands of affectionate parents do not take care of their children. Through ignorance more than through culpable neglect they suffer them to fall sick and die, when knowledge might have saved them to love and home. Dr. David Kennedy offers his "Favorite Remedy" as emphatically a medicine for the children—gentle in its action, containing no harmful ingredients whatever, going straight to the Blood, which, when impure, is the seat and source of disease. "Favorite Remedy" is the friend of childhood and should be found in every nursery in the land. Keep it in your house for your children's sake, as well as for your own. Try it and you will be glad you saw this article. Make no mistakes. The medicine is "Favorite Remedy" and the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. One dollar a bottle.

Chloro
Miracles of Healing Unparalleled in Medical History.
CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the great natural blood purifier, absorbent, renovator and vitalizer, has shown its grand curative power in scrotula, white swellings, ulcers, erysipelas, swelled neck, scrofulous inflammation, mercurial affections, old sores, eruptions of the skin, sore eyes and scalp affections, with dry, thin, and falling hair; and when the CUTICURA, a Medicinal Jelly, and the CUTICURA SOAP, prepared from it, are applied to external symptoms, the cures effected by the CUTICURA REMEDIES are marvellous.

SCROFULA.
SCROFULA.—Gen. William Taylor, Boston, State Senator of Massachusetts, permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities. He says: "I have been so elated with my successful use of the Cuticura Remedies that I have stopped men in the streets to tell them of my case."

RUNNING SORES.
RUNNING SORES. Henry Landecker, Dover, N. H., certifies that Aug. 29, 1877, he broke his leg. The bone was set by a physician. Upon removing the splints sores broke out from the knee to the heel. Doctors called them varicose veins, and ordered rubber stockings. Paid $25 for stockings, without any signs of cure. Bought CUTICURA REMEDIES and was rapidly and permanently cured. Certified to by Lothrops & Pinkham, Druggists, Dover, N. H.

SALT RHEUM.
SALT RHEUM.—Geo. F. Owen, Dealer in Pianos, Grand Rapids, Mich., was troubled for nine years with Salt Rheum. Tried every medicine known to the trade, and was attended by many physicians with only temporary relief. Cured by CUTICURA REMEDIES.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington St., Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, a Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, 60 cents; large boxes, $1. CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA MEDICINAL TOILET SOAP, 35 cents. STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

Two young women named Agnes O'Brien and Annie McDermott, came to Lewiston from St. Stephen, N. B., a few months ago. They were friends and companions. A week or two ago, the O'Brien girl borrowed from Miss McDermott a wallet, two dollars in money, her cloak, and two gold rings, and disappeared, also taking with her a gold chain owned by Mrs. L. A. Hayes of this city. Miss O'Brien was traced to St. Stephen, and J. D. Storer, Esq., sent information of thieving to an officer there. The girl was induced to return the chain and it arrived Monday. The other articles have not been found, yet. Further steps will be taken.—Lewiston Journal.

A reform movement is starting in Durham. Some of the Lewiston reform workers have been down there and considerable interest has been developed.

Nothing has been heard from James Starbird, whose house was burned at Turner, last September, since he left town, at the time of the arson trial. No claim has been made on the insurance company.

It is reported that Ira C. Chase has sold the Centennial Springs property, adjoining the Poland Springs, to Boston parties. Rumor puts the figure at $50,000.

Coombs has sold his large painting, "Artist Brook" to Mr. B. Frank Wood, and Mr. Wood, in our judgment has one of the best landscapes ever painted in the State. —Journal.

Aroostook.

Geo. Edwards, the fasting prisoner in Houlton jail, "still lives," although he has swallowed nothing except water since Nov. 30th, on which day he took a very small quantity of chicken broth. He has been visited several times during the past week by Dr. Walker, who reports very little change in his physical condition. He still adheres to his first proposition, viz: suicide by starvation—Pioneer.

One day last week Solomon Milbury hauled to Houlton from Linneus, with one pair of horses, a load of bark that measured four and a quarter cords.

Lumbermen report snow enough for all practical purposes, a large proportion of which is on instead of under the trees.

Merchant Philbrick, proprietor of the Snell House, Houlton, has a promising Conqueror colt, four years old, which bids fair to show great speed.

Cumberland.

The Press says: It will be remembered that Mr. Arthur C. Frost, of Deering, was arrested last week by a Deputy United States Marshal, charged with passing a counterfeit trade dollar upon Mr. Henry Holland of this city. He was brought before Commissioner Rand and the case was continued until Monday. Tuesday afternoon he was again brought before the commissioner. Mr. George H. Richardson, of the banking house of Swan & Barrett, was called in as an expert. He tested the trade dollar with acids and weighed it carefully. After his examination of the coin he pronounced it genuine. It is but just to say that the dollar was about the worst specimen ever seen, although now admitted to be perfectly good. Mr. Frost was, of course, promptly discharged.

Kennebec.

The Journal says that one of the Togus soldiers, while attempting to cross the river opposite Captain Jacob Brett's, on Christmas morning, got into a hole in the ice where logs had been cut out and was unable to extricate himself from his uncomfortable and dangerous position. He struggled for some time, and at last his outcries were heard by Mr. Frank Kimball, a young man who works in the Journal office. Frank hastened to his assistance, and pulled the ex-son of Mars from the water just as he was yielding to the cold. A few moments more and he would have been drowned.

Saturday, Mrs. John Colburn, living in Augusta, slipped on the ice, breaking both bones in her right wrist, and badly shattering several other bones.

Oxford.

The mill owned by A. S. Bean at Pattee's Mills was burnt the 24th of last month. He is building a new one which will be completed in a few days. He will saw a large amount of boards, shingles, laths, and spool strips.—Democrat.

Shepherd, Brown & Staples, of Andover, have landed more than a hundred thousand feet spruce, and Frank Thomas about the same amount.

Franklin Plantations: The Democrat says: Charles Bisbee, the boss old fox hunter, with Hon. Henry O. Stanley of Dixfield, shot four foxes in one forenoon lately, Bisbee making the first two shots and Stanley making the last two shots. One day last week they tried their luck again, and they succeeded in bringing in two foxes each of them, making a good day's hunt.

Somerset.

Bath: A nephew of T. M. Reed, Esq., was presented by that gentleman Christmas with a check for $1000. Wish we were a nephew of the generous millionaire.

No news as yet from the ship Marcia Greenleaf. The second mate, cook and sixteen men, nearly all of whom were married, are from Bath. It is believed the Greenleaf has been driven southward by the rough weather.

AT THE STAMP WINDOW.

Just before 11 o'clock in the forenoon there were thirteen men and one woman at the stamp window of the postoffice. Most of the men had letters to post for the eastern trains. The woman had something tied up in a blue match-box. She got there first, and she held the position with her head in the window and both elbows on the shelf.

"Is there such a place in this country as Cleveland?" she began.

"Oh, yes."

"Do you send mail there?"

"Yes."

"Well, a woman living next door asked me to mail this box for her. I guess its directed all right. She said it ought to go for a cent."

"Takes two cents," said the clerk, after weighing it. "If there's writing inside it will be twelve cents."

"Mercy on me, but how you do charge!"

Here the thirteen men began to push up and hustle around and talk about one old match box delaying two dozen business letters, but the woman had lots of time.

"Then it will be two cents, eh?"

"If there is no writing inside."

"Well, there may be. I know she is a great hand to write. She's sending some flower seed to her sister, and I presume she has told her how to plant 'em."

"Two threes! called one of the crowd, as he tried to get to the window.

"Hurry up!" called another.

"There ought to be a separate window here for women?" growled a third.

"Then it will take twelve cents!" she calmly queried, as she fumbled around for her purse.

"Yes."

"Well, I'd better pay it, I guess."

From one pocket she took two coppers. From her reticule she took a three-cent piece. From her purse she fished out a nickel; and it was only after a hunt of eighty seconds that she got the twelve cents together. She then consumed four minutes in putting on the stamps, asking where to post the box and wondering if there really was any writing inside. But women proposes and man disposes. Twenty thousand dollars' worth of business was waiting for a twelve-cent woman, and a tidal wave suddenly took her away from the window. In sixty seconds the thirteen men had been waited on and gone their ways, and the woman returned to the window, handed in the box, and said: "Them stamps are put on kind o' crooked; but it won't make any difference will it?"—Detroit Free Press.

THE SOLAR ECLIPSE.

[From the Providence Journal.]

Whatever other event may disappoint our expectations, the eclipse of the sun will as surely take place as the sun will rise in the eastern sky. On Friday morning, the 31st, the sun will make his first appearance with his glorious proportions marred, for a dark shadow will be advancing on his northern limb and dimming the brightness of his morning beams. This phenomenon is known as a solar eclipse, and is caused by a portion of the dark body of the moon passing between us and the sun.

	h. m.
The eclipse being at	7 14 a. m.
The sun rises eclipsed at	7 30 a. m.
The greatest obscuration is at	8 12 a. m.
The eclipse ends at	9 11 a. m.

When the sun rises the eclipse will have been in progress about a quarter of an hour, and a little more than one-fifth of his disc will be observed. The shadow will advance and the darkness will increase for about three-quarters of an hour, when nearly one-half of the sun will be eclipsed, and we can realize, in a slight degree, what would be our unfortunate condition if the great luminary were deprived of half his illuminating power. The greatest point of obscuration is then reached; it will take an hour for the eclipse to pass off, and a little after nine the show will be over. Observers can easily watch its progress, for a view of the eastern sky and a piece of smoked glass are all the apparatus required. These are the data for the eclipse in this vicinity; further north the eclipse reaches larger proportions, the greatest eclipse occurring in Greenland, where nearly three-quarters of the sun's disc is obscured. At the time of the eclipse the sun and moon are very nearly at their least possible distance from the earth.

The present solar eclipse is interesting from the fact that no other solar eclipse of much greater dimensions, will be visible here until the year 1900. In 1885, an eclipse will be seen, in which a little more than half the sun's disc will be obscured. In 1892, one will occur, hiding about three-fifths of the sun's face. In 1900, observers will behold a grand sight, for more than nine-tenths of the solar disc will be eclipsed. Those who then wish to see the most glorious sight that is ever beheld on this planet will only have to travel as far south as Virginia, where the eclipse is total. If the coming eclipse were only total, such is the interest aroused in the noble science of astronomy, we have faith to believe that the day would be made a general holiday, business would be suspended, schools would be closed and every inhabitant of the belt where the dark shadow fell would be watching the progress as the magnificent spectacle when the sun ceased to shine in the heavens, the rosy protuberances darted their tongues of flame from his darkened disc, and the silvery corona beamed forth upon the darkness of the sky. Meantime we must be content with the anticipated phenomenon of the last morning of the year, so moderate in its dimensions that if the morning chances to be cloudy, those not on the watch would scarcely note anything but an uncommonly dark morning, but as beautifully illustrating the laws that sway the movements of celestial bodies, as the total eclipses which were the terror of the ignorant barbarians of the past and are the delight of the astronomers of the present, as familiar with the causes that produce them as they are with the reason an apple falls to the ground.

STILL BOTHERED BY SOUTHERN MULISHNESS.

[From the Boston Herald.]

It does not look well for a community that is invoking immigration to still hold the stigma of "carpet-bagger" over a citizen who is honored and esteemed after fifteen years' residence. Any man who goes to Georgia, or any other Southern State, for the purpose of casting his lot with the people, ought to be just as much at home, after one year, as he would be in Kansas or Colorado. Why is he not? It really taxes Northern charity to invent a rational explanation. Even Judge Woods, to whose support the Southern bar rallied so warmly, was accepted for his ability as a jurist, but is not "credited" to the South, because, although he has lived there for fifteen years and is thoroughly identified with her new manufacturing and other material interests, he was born north of the old slave line. Well, there are States in the Union quite as populous as any of the old Gulf States of the South, nearly all of whose adult population was born outside their borders, and three-fifths of whom are the accessions of the last dozen years. Even in the older Western States the term of "carpet-bagger" is unknown. It is time it was dropped at the South.

IMMENSE BUSINESS OF THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

In an interview at Cincinnati the other day, Senator Beck, of Kentucky, said he thought that "from the vast and increasing extent of the affairs of the Treasury, we are rapidly approaching a time when we shall have to place the Treasury under two heads in place of one, as at present—one of them to confine his labors to the management of the collection of taxes, duties, and revenue generally, while the other looks after only the disbursements, that grow every year more and more enormous. No one man, not even John Sherman, with all his great—I may say with his remarkable—abilities, can more than glance at the briefest synopsis of many of the operations of the Treasury, and oftentimes no more than merely sign his name. This division is rendered, it seems to me, imperative, in order that the books of the collecting and disbursing departments may be kept straight by a more thorough set of checks and balances, so as to agree without forcing balances, as is now too often the case. I look upon the Treasury as immeasurably the department of the Government at present requiring the most commanding ability of any other, and I do not know where to look for a successor worthy to fill John Sherman's shoes. Even could Alexander Hamilton come forth from his grave, with all his masterly attributes, I believe he would start back appalled at the vastness of the responsibilities it presents."

The Geneva correspondent of the London Times says the suicide of M. Anderwert, President of the Swiss Confederation, is attributed to temporary insanity. He believed his life to be endangered by secret enemies, and the relatively small majority by which he was recently elected President is stated to have greatly disappointed him.

The N. Y. Herald says that New Jersey is congratulating that she has "Phil" Kearney in bronze in her State House and "Phil" Kearney in bronze in the principal park of her largest city, while "Phil" Kearney's mortal remains lie in a tomb in Trinity Churchyard, in New York, with not so much as his surname on the tombstone.

POLITICAL STATUS OF CHINESE. In answer to inquiries we state that under our existing laws Chinese cannot become citizens of the United States. Our naturalization laws in the old slavery days restricted naturalization to "free white" persons. When the statute was amended to include persons of African nativity and descent an attempt was made to strike out the word "white." An amendment to that effect was carried in the Senate, but as it was afterwards discovered that the important election bill to which it was an amendment could not be carried with that provision, it was reconsidered and the amendment rejected to save the bill. The law then adopted now stands in the U. S. Revised Statutes as follows:

SEC. 2169. The provisions of this Title shall apply to aliens (being free white persons and to aliens) of African nativity and to persons of African descent.

The existing statutes, therefore exclude Chinese from naturalization, although persons of that race are said to have been naturalized in Massachusetts and perhaps elsewhere. The following provision of the 15th Amendment does not apply to this case:

Sect. 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State, on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.

That applies to "citizens" and does not affect the laws governing the admission of aliens to citizenship.

The report of mortality in New York city up to Christmas day has been prepared by the Bureau of Vital Statistics. During the first three quarters of the year 9474 children under two years and 11,336 children between two and five years have died. The deaths from violence numbered 1006, from sunstroke 116, and in public institutions 4166 deaths occurred.

THE SPRAGUE SCANDAL. The Providence Journal indignantly denies the current stories about improper relations between Mrs. Sprague and Senator Conkling, and says they are all false. The Journal is also indignant at the refusal of the officer charged to serve the writ of replevin issued in behalf of Mrs. Sprague for the recovery of her wearing apparel and that of her children, the portrait of her father, and other separate and individual property at Canonchet, although he has been tendered an ample bond of indemnity, and offered a responsible and satisfactory deputy to make the service if he is afraid or unwilling to discharge that duty in person, and although it is understood that Mr. Chaffee, in whom as trustee is the fee of the estate, is willing that it should be entered, forcibly, if necessary, for that purpose. It is a disgrace to public justice, and an outrage upon private rights, that, in that orderly and law-abiding State, a writ of replevin cannot be served in behalf of a woman to recover possession of her clothes.

VENNOR'S SYSTEM. Mr. Henry G. Vennor has endeavored to explain the true "system" of foretelling the weather. He says it will not do to rely upon gypsies, Indians, or wild animals, for they often err, and that dependence can alone be placed upon intelligent, educated reasoning and deduction, based upon the experience gathered during a lengthened period (some years) of active out-door life and close observation, and added to this, an extensive knowledge of the weather changes generally (from newspapers or telegrams) throughout the North American continent and portions of Europe, both of to-day and in the past. Such requirements, he says, in possible of attainment until, as it were, yesterday, may be reached to-day, when all classes of the people daily have placed in their hands, or within their easy reach, the cable and wire despatches of the world in which the weather has now generally a place.

The following are said to have been the amounts paid "George Eliot" for her writings up to about three years ago: "Scenes of Clerical Life," $5000; "Silas Marner," $7500; "Adam Bede," $16,500; "Mill on the Floss," $20,000; "Romola," $17,000; "Felix Holt," $22,500; "Spanish Gypsy," $3500; "Middlemarch," $40,000; "Legend of Jubal," $2000; and "Daniel Deronda," $30,000, making a total of $162,000.

The Washington correspondents have made Senator Blaine Gen. Garfield's Secretary of State, but all will know more about it March 4. While it is true that Clay, Webster, Cass, Seward and Chase left the Senate for Cabinet positions, at the present time a seat in the Senate is generally considered more desirable by men of such national prominence as Mr. Blaine.—Boston Journal.

DEATH OF THE ORIGINATOR OF THE TUNNEL OUT OF LIBBY PRISON. Of Capt. B. B. McDonald, who died at Denver, Col., on the 22d inst., the News of that city says: "The gentleman came here about a month since, accompanied by his daughter, in hopes of recuperating his shattered health. His brain was affected in some way, and for two weeks he had entirely lost his reason. Capt. McDonald was in the Eighteenth Regiment of New York during the war, and obtained considerable notoriety through his daring escape from Libby Prison. He cut a tunnel from his cell under the yard and wall of the prison with an ordinary chisel. Thirty-nine prisoners escaped with him and reached the Union lines, a distance of more than 100 miles, occupying more than 39 days on the journey."

METROPOLITAN MOUNTAINS OF MAIL MATTER. The amount of mail matter in the New York Post Office Monday morning 27th, at 7 o'clock was greater than had ever accumulated at any one time in the history of the office. It had been collecting since 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon. Added to the general income were the mails from three ocean steamships, two of which should have been in before Friday. There were also two very heavy extra mails from San Francisco and two through mails from Galveston and the Southwest. Very little matter was delivered on Saturday, business men having closed their offices more generally than is usual on Christmas Day. Then few persons who hold boxes in the office called for their letters. The boxes became so full, that it became necessary to make bundles of the matter and to put cards in the boxes requesting box holders to call at the windows for packages. There were forty bushels of these packages taken out of the boxes.

The result of the accumulation Monday morning was that the carriers had for their first delivery, at 7 o'clock, for the district below Canal street, 700,000 letters, beside a very large quantity of newspaper and circulating matter. The weight of the contents of the bags averaged 30 pounds. One man took out 176 pounds of matter and it filled seven large collection bags. He went about in a hack. The letters taken out by one carrier, when placed on edge on a sorting table, measured 27 feet. Notwithstanding the great amount of matter it was all delivered and the carriers were back in the office at 10 o'clock.—Tribune.

The first session of the International Sanitary Conference will be held in the State Department building, Washington, January 5th.

With snow in the air, with Sitting Bull about to surrender, with a third of the National debt paid and with the principles of Lee and Jackson buried underneath a popular majority, why should we not have a merry Christmas, even if the rest of the world be more or less unhappy?—Tribune.

SLIGHTLY FLORAL. A Maryland editor tenders congratulations to a recently married friend in these fervid words: "Fate has garlanded the chaplet of our friend with one of the fairest and sweetest flowers that bloom in the parterre of beauty, whose fragrance will impregnate with redolence every impulse of his generous heart. The brightest star that radiates the galaxy of fascinating women shines upon and illuminates his pathway with her bland smile and alluring light, whose resplendent effulgence, glowing with undimmed lustre each revolving season, will pilot the victor of so estimable a prize to a haven of happiness. May joys and blessings as exquisite and hallowed as those engendered by a shower of roses scattered down by the hands of the Peri from the far-off gardens of Paradise crown their wedded future, and increase with the lapse of years."

The Chicago Times prays people to cease talking about Boston as though it were the centre of a Puritan aristocracy, since, in fact, there are fewer descendants of the Pilgrims in Boston than in New York, the only city which really celebrates Forefathers' day. Boston is, in fact, as an Irish city—one of the largest Irish cities in the world. Like the Puritan, the Irishman came over, but he didn't come over in the Mayflower. The Plymouth stock is scattered throughout the Northern States of the Union, and, owing to its loss of hardy virtue, is fast disappearing. In Boston it may influence Beacon street, but it cannot carry an election. The Irish and their progeny, coming thick and fast, have taken possession of the Massachusetts capital. Boston is no longer the modern Athens. It is the latter-day Tara.—Boston Herald.

EXPENSES.

Economy is important not only as a feeling, directly the marriage of supplies but also as an indication of prudence and carefulness in all directions. It is a virtue which rarely goes unattended. During the last ten years the ratio of expenses to receipts of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company has been only 1.83 per cent. and during the year just closed, only 6.64 per cent. This unequalled economy has served a great deal of money for dividends.

MAINE VESSEL IN TROUBLE. The brig Sarah Gilmore, Capt. Clifford, left Cadiz, Oct. 10, for Boston and put into Bermuda, Dec. 21. She encountered a severe storm and lost sails, spars, deck and hatch houses and got out of provisions afterwards. The Gilmore is owned in Stockton.

OUT OF JAIL. James Ross, better known as "Charlie," is again on the street, having been discharged from Stratton's, where he has been boarding a few weeks at the expense of several of our citizens. He expresses regret that he could not have remained there the rest of the season, and so will the community at large.

SOWING THE WIND. A young man in this city, who has socially been on a downward grade for some time, amused himself last night, while under the influence of liquor, by smashing a plate of glass in a window of L. J. Wheelden's music store on Main street and creating disturbance in several other places of business. He was arrested and taken to the police station.

Yesterday, a well-known barber in our city received per the Penobscot River Express a C. O. D. package. After paying the charges, the knight of the shears opened the package and found therein a very dilapidated rag baby that looked as though it had been roughly handled in more than one campaign. The justly indignant recipient refuses to adopt it.

An enterprising and energetic High School lad in Lewiston has purchased him several acres of woodland, and occupies his leisure hours in fitting his wood for market. This young man had by diligence and thrift in employing his spare hours, accumulated a considerable portion of his purchase money. An example that might be profitably imitated by boys in Bangor.

THE STORM. Unlike most of the preceding snow storms which were nearly exhausted before reaching Bangor, this last one which has so severely prevailed elsewhere, came to us in full vigor yesterday about 8 A. M., and up to the time of writing—midnight—had steadily fallen, with a fair prospect of continuing some hours longer. The weather, however, has moderated considerably since the commencement of the storm, at which t me the mercury stood at 11° above.

THE POULTRY SHOW. The poultry show of the Penobscot County Poultry Association opened yesterday forenoon at City Hall, and is said to be the finest exhibition of the kind that has ever been seen in Bangor. There are many rare and beautiful specimens. Of the 185 entries eighty-five are from Bangor fanciers. Charles F. Thompson, of Wadleigh Falls, N. H., has an exhibit of eighty-seven pairs of birds. The exhibition will continue until ten o'clock Friday forenoon.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS. The following item is from the Lewiston Journal: "The next six months our mills are going to make a great record," remarked one of our manufacturers, Tuesday forenoon. "Although all our mills have made good earnings and paid good dividends, the last six months have been a hard half-year to pull through. Brown cottons which were quoted at ten cents last January, were down to seven and one-half cents last July. There was a great depression in the market, which all our mills had to weather. To-day those same goods are back to ten cents once more—just where they were last January. The market is strong and the goods are sold right up to the looms. Our mills are going to increase their earnings ten or fifteen per cent. for the current six months over the previous six, according to the present indications."

Up to midnight, between four and five inches of snow had fallen.

General Manning of Wilmington, N. C., formerly of Lewiston writes that the question of prohibition is being agitated in that State. From a hasty personal observation among the working men and women of Wilmington and of other parts of the South, we are very decidedly of the opinion that a good prohibitory law in the South as rigidly enforced as the Maine law now is in most parts of this State, in ten years would revolutionize the material and social condition of the old slave States. Probably half the earnings of the working classes in the South, especially in towns and cities, are worse than wasted in dissipation. We hope the friends of temperance in North Carolina will agitate this question.—Journal.

Police Court.

Joseph Wooster, of Orono, the particulars of whose arrest for stealing a robe and blanket from Spratt's stable appeared in yesterday's WHIG, was tried and found guilty; he was sentenced to four months in the county jail.

Decisions in Law.

The following decision has been received by Ruel Smith, Esq., Clerk of the Eastern Law District:

PENOBSCOT COUNTY.

Georgine Thomas et al. Executors, vs. Sanford Steam Ship Co. "Defendants defaulted."

Rescript—To agreement between the parties, under our statute, created a tenancy at will. By this statute, (R. S. chap. 94 §21) it could be terminated only by thirty days notice in writing therefor, by one party to the other, or by mutual consent.

It is not claimed by the defendants that it was terminated by the notice in writing, but it is claimed that it was terminated by mutual consent. Upon this issue the burden of proof is on the defendants.

We are not satisfied by the evidence that the tenancy was terminated by the parties by mutual consent.

Golden Wedding in San Francisco.

[From the Pacific, Dec. 10.]

On Saturday evening, Dec. 4th, Deacon and Mrs. P. N. Blunt, of the First Baptist church in this city, celebrated their golden wedding in the social rooms of that church. It was a most interesting and delightful occasion. There being no Baptist church in Downieville, Mr. and Mrs. Blunt were for several years, while residents of that town, among the pillars of the Congregational work and worship there, under the pastoral care, at that time, of Rev. W. C. Pond. Mrs. S. F. Woodhull, mother of Mrs. Pond, contributed for the golden wedding the following poem:

There is a time beneath New England skies,
When the late autumn, as if loth to go,
Lingers alone the hills with sunlit eyes,
And outstretched hands over the vales below.

A golden haze floats round her like a mist,
The air is soft and balmy where she strays,
And lo! as her last, richest parting gift,
She brings the glorious Indian summer days.

So in these lives of ours there comes a time,
After long strife with care and self and sin,
When the soul rises by a power sublime,
And to God's rest and sunshine enters in;
Where calm and quiet and the peace of God
And love divine, after long patient years,
Sit jubilant upon the radiant brow,
And life has no more place for griefs or fears.

To those, love-crowned, by fifty years,
Their golden wedding brings still rarer gifts
Than blessed to glad, bright days of long ago.
For now God's smile their souls to Heaven uplifts,
And in life's blissful Indian summer time,
So rich in heartfelt joy, they can await,
With reverent trust, their Heavenly Father's will,
Till safe he leads them through the golden gate.

[The Rev. W. C. Pond alluded to in the above is a son of Dr. Pond of this city. Mrs. Woodhull is the widow of Rev. R. Woodhull, formerly of Bangor.]

WHAT MR. PITTS MIGHT HAVE SAVED HIMSELF.

Mr. Henry Pitts, of Kingston, N. Y., suffered from the presence of Stone in the Bladder for several years. Dr. Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., removed the foreign body by the knife. Had Mr. Pitts, and others similarly afflicted, used Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" in the earlier stages of the disease, the medicine would have prevented the formation of the calculus or stone, rendering a dangerous surgical operation unnecessary. Dr. Kennedy gave "Favorite Remedy" to prevent the return of the disease, and Mr. Pitt remains in perfect health to this day. d&w2w dec28
